STATEMENT:

Article I of the Alaska State Constitution: "This constitution is dedicated to the principles that all persons have a natural right to life, liberty, the pursuit of happiness, and the enjoyment of the rewards of their own industry; that all persons are equal and entitled to equal rights, opportunities, and protection under the law; and that all persons have corresponding obligations to the people and to the State."

To that end, my priorities have been and will be going forward, supporting and encouraging the following progressive values.

- Freedom
- Opportunity
- Responsibility
- Cooperation

That both private enterprise and government are essential for creating individual opportunity and growth. That our economy should work for everyone, not just the few, and that inequality and environmental degradation harm us all.

We the people of this great land are the stewards of all our natural resources and of our environment. The well-being of our communities and eventual success of our children for generations to come rests entirely with us now. We must protect and wisely use our natural resources in smarter and more sustainable ways.

The Alaska Constitution also states that all political power is inherent in the people and that all government originates with the people and is founded upon their will only. To that end I would greatly appreciate your vote on November 8th and would be most humbly honored to work for you as your House District 22 representative in Juneau for the 30th Alaska State Legislative session in 2017-2018.
